2010 Creighton RibFest in Bruce Park

BERRY PEPPER DAYS

The celebration occurs during the third weekend in June. Activities include RibFest, a grand parade, car show, street dance, road rally, children's parade, fly-in breakfast, antique tractor show, baseball tournament, sand volleyball tournament, sidewalk sales, bicycle ride and more.

Creighton Community and St. Ludger School alumni banquets are usually planned for the same weekend.

What is a Berry Pepper?

A unique summertime frozen treat made from a secret recipe perfected in 1968. Make sure to grab one during the celebration.

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SCHOOLS

Creighton's educational facilities are some of the finest in Northeast Nebraska. Creighton Community Elementary and Secondary Schools earned the prestigious No Child Left Behind Blue Ribbon Schools award in 2002 and 2003. The school is continually ranked as one of the top in the state.

St. Ludger Elementary offers a private school experience and an intimate atmosphere.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Located in south central Knox County in Northeast Nebraska, Creighton offers many opportunities to those who visit.

Creighton is an agricultural community where people are friendly and hard-working. Be sure to visit the mile-long business district which offers many amenities.

Visit the Creighton Public Library, built in 2000, to check out books, magazines, videos; surf the web; hold a meeting; or just relax.

Recreation

Bruce Park – A state arboretum has camping, picnic areas, playground, swimming, tennis, baseball and softball facilities. Check out the butterfly garden and the World War II era fighter plan.

Creighton's Mini-Park – Located in a greenspace on Main Street, the park features a statue of Private Shannon and is a part of the Shannon Trail.

Golfing – A nine-hole golf course offers a challenge along the winding Bazile Creek on the east side of Creighton.

Hunting – The area is well-known for its abundance of deer, quail, pheasants and turkeys that will please any avid hunter.

Creighton's water tower beckons visitors to town, as it can be seen for miles around.
